

GLEN KENDALL WILL SURVIVE FATAL MISHAP

WEDNESDAY FOR THREE WHO DIED IN TRAIN AUTO CRASH

Glen Kendall, 26, occupant of automobile in which three men were killed Wednesday afternoon when the car was struck by a fast westbound Pennsylvania passenger train, was given a good chance to recover Thursday at the Putnam county hospital.

Kendall was carried in the wreckage of the auto from the Zinc Mill crossing to immediately west of the Bloomington street crossing, a distance of about a mile. He sustained serious back and head injuries but less unforeseen complications than it is believed that he will recover.

The men killed in the accident were Leslie Cox, 22, south Indiana street, son of Mrs. Obie Cox; Buford Foley, 23, Route 4, son of Mrs. E. St. Clair; George Leonard, 21, Maple Avenue, son of Lester Leonard.

All of the men were World War II veterans and had been good friends during the school days and while in service. Both Leonard and Cox were married.

The Pennsylvania train, "The American" was about forty minutes late and was running 90 miles an hour when it struck the auto in which the four men and dog were riding. It was due at 11:58 a. m. and the crash occurred at approximately 12:10 p. m.

Bodies of the victims and bits of wreckage were strewn along the right-of-way for several hundred yards as the double-header train was brought to a stop about a mile from the scene of the accident.

Kendall was carried in the body of the car while the chassis was in another twisted section of wreckage.

The automatic block signals at the Bloomington street crossing were put out of commission temporarily as result of the accident due to the car wreckage dragging along the tracks.

The front engine of the double-header was also disabled in the crash and had to be disconnected from the rest of the train.

Bodies of the three men, who were killed, were so badly mangled that it required some time to identify them.

Kendall was pulled out of the wreckage and rushed to the hospital. Many expressed the opinion that it was a miracle that he was alive.

Charles McCurry, Putnam county coroner, soon reached the scene and took charge of the bodies and conducted an investigation.

It was said the four men were just starting to Indianapolis where they were employed when the accident occurred.

Double funeral services for Mr. Foley and Mr. Cox will be held from the McCurry Funeral home at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. William McKeehan will have charge.

Last rites for Mr. Leonard will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the McCurry Funeral home. Rev. McKeehan will also have charge of this service. Burial will be in the Stilesville cemetery.

In addition to his father, Mr.

Leonard is survived by the wife, Maxine; one sister, Beulah Jean York, of Tuscola, Ill.

Mr. Foley is survived by his mother, Mrs. Sallie St. Clair; his step-father, Elijah St. Clair; two half sisters, Miss Marguerite St. Clair; Mrs. Mabel Long, Madison township; three half brothers, Marion Crawley, Washington state; William Crawley, Indianapolis; Eugene Crawley, New Castle.

Mr. Cox is survived by his wife, Jean; a four-months old son, David; his mother, Mrs. Emma Cox; four brothers, Virgil, Madison twp.; Eugene, Clay county; Abner, Bainbridge; Chauncey, Belle Union; three sisters, Mrs. Oscar Brattain, of Lena; Mrs. Alfred Craig, of Brazil; and Mrs. Roy Rominger, of Greencastle.

MONON WILL DISPLAY NEW LOCOMOTIVE

DIESEL ENGINE WILL BE EXHIBITED HERE JANUARY 11

One of the powerful post-war Diesel locomotives with which the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railway Co. will be completely equipped by the end of 1947 will be exhibited in Greencastle, Indiana, it was announced today by Mr. F. A. Walbring, Agent of the Monon.

The locomotive will be exhibited at the passenger station from 12:45 p. m. to 5:30 p. m., Jan. 11, 1947.

The Monon will be the first railroad in America to be completely Dieselized with all three kinds of locomotives—passenger, freight and switching—and will be the largest railroad in the country to be completely Dieselized.

Greencastle residents will be permitted to inspect the new locomotive, both inside and out. Visitors will see the cab from which all the intricate machinery is operated by a simple set of controls, very similar to those with which Monon engineers have operated steam locomotives. They will also be permitted to pass through the engine rooms in each of which is located a 1500 horsepower General Motors two-cycle Diesel engine, one of the newly developed generators which produces alternating and direct current, the latest type of air compressor, and a maze of control apparatus, the whole arranged as neatly as the interior of a modern submarine.

L. C. Conrad Sells Putnam Co. Farm

Probably one of the largest real estate deals made in Putnam county in recent years, has been the sale of the 312 acre farm in Greencastle township near the airport, owned by L. C. Conrad. The purchasers were Mr. and Mrs. James N. Woodall of Indianapolis, who will take charge of the farm on March 1, this year.

THREE YOUNG MEN DIE IN PENNSY-AUTO WRECK WEDNESDAY

This picture shows what little was left of the automobile in which three young men were killed Wednesday afternoon when the fast west bound "American" struck their automobile at the Zinc Mill crossing. The wrecked car was carried about a mile before the two-engine train of some twelve Pullman cars could be stopped.

The wreckage was taken off the locomotive just west of the Bloomington street crossing. The chassis was slightly west of the body of the car which can be seen in the near background. Those who aided Glen Kendall from the wreckage said the body of the car had been rolled up and he was inside it during the wild mile ride. The bodies of the three men were found along the track between the Zinc Mill crossing and the Mid-West quarry crossing.

Dr. Wildman In Chapel Address

Ability to concentrate on the thing at hand is the secret of power, Dr. Clyde E. Wildman, DePauw University president, told students in his worship chapel address today.

"The sin of American life is not lack of activity. It is aimlessness," Dr. Wildman declared. "Our favorite instrument is the speedometer, not the compass."

Speaking on "This One Thing I Do," Dr. Wildman pointed out that it is "not the speed with which we move, it is that we move forward and that our goal is worthy of our striving." We need to consider the spiritual rock from which we are hewn, he continued, adding that he did not suggest abandoning current books and magazines. "We must never sacrifice symmetry and balance to the quest for power," he warned.

Citing possible dangers in looking too much to the past, Dr. Wildman said that the "final strategy" is to press on, guided by former mistakes and victories while giving attention to the present race.

"This is the race of life. The stakes are high and the goal supreme," Dr. Wildman said.

Teachers Get Pay Increases

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—(UP)—A teachers' strike, scheduled to begin at 7:30 a. m. against the city's trade, vocational and high schools, was averted today as a result of pay increases announced by the board of education.

The board approved an immediate $4,250,000 teachers' salary boost, together with a long-range schedule calling for additional increases of $13,196,000 if and when the money is available.

Herschel N. Scott, president of the Men's Teachers' Club, announced that the strike had been postponed until March 15, but warned that it would be held then unless demands for a full 30 per cent increase had been met by the school board.

Loses Life But Stays At Post

GRIFITH, Ind., Jan. 9. (UP)—Joseph Miller, 53, lost his life because he remained true to a railroad man's traditions and stuck by his switch.

When fire broke out in the automatic control tower which Miller was tending yesterday he climbed down the long, 30 foot steel ladder and summoned firemen. When help arrived, smoke was rolling from the windows high above the track intersection for five major railroads, and blue flames crackled along the high-power transmission lines leading into the tiny shack atop the tower.

Firemen told Miller the smoke was too dense for him to re-enter the control booth, but the switch-tender insisted he was the only person who knew how to shut off the automatic controls and turn them over to manual operation.

Miller climbed the hot rungs through clouds of smoke, entered his "office," and cut the switch. While firemen battled the flames with chemicals, Miller began the trip down the ladder. A few feet from the bottom he stumbled and fell, unconscious, to the ground.

His wife and daughter found him there, a pulmotor squad unsuccessfully trying to restore his life. A physician told them he died of hemorrhages induced by the smoke.

Stand Pat On Tax Reductions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—House Republicans stood pat on their tax reduction plans today despite renewed opposition from President Truman.

They said both personal income taxes and excise levies could and would be cut even though the President felt such moves represented "unsound fiscal policy."

The President called for maintenance of current tax levels in his State of the Union message to Congress on Monday, in his economic report yesterday, and will certainly do it again in his budget message tomorrow.

Mr. Truman's recommendations for a broadened base for the Social Security program, also contained in his economic message to Congress, met with general approval. But key Republicans protested that they were too vague to serve as a guide for legislative action.

"He will come out against sin next," snapped Harold Knutson R., Minn., of the House Ways and Means Committee. "When he sends down some specific proposals, the committee will give them full and due consideration."

LEGISLATURE CONVENES IN 85TH SESSION

INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS THURSDAY IN INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—(INS)—Suspending the rules, both the Senate and the House of Representatives passed the first bill of the 85th session of the Indiana General Assembly.

The measure appropriates $100,000 for expenses of the lawmakers; and the pay of legislative employees and printing.

Another bill, to defray the salaries of the legislators, probably will be passed similarly tomorrow after the recommendations of Gov. Ralph F. Gates are heard.

Democratic members of the General Assembly started to harass the Republican majority on the first day by introducing a bonus bill and by attempting to bar from the legislative all the lawmakers who are state employees.

Senator John Gonas, Democrat of South Bend, introduced a bill providing a bonus for all veterans of World War II and for relatives of those killed in action.

The bill provided for a 30 million dollar appropriation to pay each veteran $10 for each month of service plus $1 for each month of overseas duty.

A move by Democratic members of the legislature to deny legislative seats to all legislators who also hold state jobs was blocked by the majority members.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—(INS)—The 85th Indiana General Assembly, the first since the end of World War II, opened in Indianapolis today.

Formalities of organizing the Senate and House of Representatives were first on the program, with an early adjournment scheduled until 10 a. m. Friday when Governor Ralph F. Gates will outline his legislative proposals at a joint meeting of the two houses in the House chamber.

Lieutenant Governor Richard T. James presided over the Senate, which was scheduled to recess at 1:30 p. m. when the House floor leader.

Representative Hobart Creighton, of Warsaw, was sure of reelection as speaker of the House and Representative George W. Henley, of Bloomington, as House floor leader.

There are 87 Republicans and 12 Democrats in the House. One G. O. P. representative, Leo Dennis, of Pekin, died since the election and no successor was named. The Republicans have 38 senators and the Democrats 12.

The Governor and the majority leaders hope to have a quiet status quo 61-day session, but a number of controversial measures will be tossed into the hopper, regardless of their efforts.

Among them are primary restoration, local option, changes in the liquor laws, legalization of pari-mutuel race horse betting, a bonus for World War II veterans, outlawing of the Klan, a cigarette tax, raids on the state treasury balance and similar hotly-contested bits of legislation.

Lobbyists, hobbyists and observers for special interests outnumbered the lawmakers in the State House corridors as the session opened.

James and Speaker Creighton are expected to name the members of the important standing committees of the two houses momentarily.

Senator Roy Conrad, Republican of Monticello, who is patronage committee chairman, today announced the Senate's list of officials, as follows:

Charles R. Brown, Montezuma; secretary; Fred Hinz, Knox, assistant secretary; Sam Gelb, Vincennes, postmaster; Mrs. Lucille Morton, Indianapolis, assistant postmaster; Russell E. Goodrich, Shelbyville, reading clerk; Paul Boatman, Veederburg, recorder; Mrs. Neva Baker, Indianapolis, indexing clerk; Mrs. Estelle Pierce, Indianapolis, registry clerk; Albert Ferris, Milton, minute clerk; Herman Beyer, South Bend, file clerk; Mrs. Cecile Parrish, Shelburn, calendar clerk.

GEN. MARSHALL JOINS WIFE IN HONOLULU

NEW SECRETARY OF STATE PLANS SHORT VISIT IN HAWAII

HONOLULU, Jan. 9.—(UP)—(UP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, the new secretary of state, arrived at Hickam Field last night en route to Washington from China, and disclosed he is "going to spend several days here but I do not know just how long."

His plane landed on Johnston Island at 10:58 P. M. (1:28 A. M. today PST) and Mrs. Marshall, who has been vacationing in the Hawaiian Islands, was on hand at the closely guarded Army Airfield to meet him.

"I'm very glad to be here and to find Mrs. Marshall looking so well," the General said after greeting his wife, who was waiting in an army limousine at the edge of the landing field.

Returning after 13 months in China as President Truman's special envoy, the general said "the odds are very much against" his making any statement while in Hawaii regarding his appointment to succeed James F. Byrnes as secretary of state.

He would make no comment to a reporter's question concerning reports he might be a presidential possibility in 1948.

Asked if he were a Democrat, Marshall replied:

"I am an army officer and presumably will be secretary of state. And I am an Episcopalian."

Five minutes after his plane's wheels touched the runway he drove off with Mrs. Marshall.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—Retiring Secretary of State James F. Byrnes was expected today to urge Gen. George C. Marshall to press the Soviet Union for the freest facilities possible for reporters at the forthcoming Moscow Big Four conference.

When Byrnes agreed to hold the next meeting in Moscow, he obtained from Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov an agreement that the foreign press would be allowed to cover the conference as it had in Paris and New York.

At his press conference Tuesday, three hours before his resignation was announced, Byrnes said he had received no word either from Molotov or the American embassy in Moscow about arrangements. Marshall now inherits the task as Byrnes' successor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (INS)—Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said today he expects Gen. George C. Marshall to confer with his committee before the new secretary leaves for the Moscow conference.

Peru's Cabinet Resigned Today

LIMA, Jan. 9.—(UP)—The entire Peruvian cabinet resigned early today as a result of the alleged political murder of one of Peru's most prominent publishers.

The mass resignation of President Jose Luis Busta nente Rivero's ministers came after an unidentified gunman shot down Francisco Grana Garland, publisher of the morning newspaper La Prensa, on Tuesday evening.

Political quarters said that Bustamante would be forced to accept the resignations and declared that the shooting provoked a political crisis that placed the government in serious difficulties.

La Prensa said, "We are dealing with a crime clearly and unmistakably of political origin."

Bomber To Fly By Radio Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—A radio-controlled army bomber will fly between Florida and Washington next Monday to demonstrate a probable bombing technique in any future war, it was announced today.

The Army Air Forces said the flight would take the "deacon" plane and its accompanying control ship from Elgin Field, Fla., to Washington and return.

The AAF said the flight was to show how a bombing mission could be carried out against an easily-defended area without risking the lives of human pilots.

Both the drone and the "mother" plane from which it will be controlled are B-17 Flying Fortresses. A pilot in the mother ship will follow the drone's flight on a screen similar to that used in television. He will control its movements by radio.

On the way northward, after reaching Richmond, Va., the drone will head out to sea where a bomb will be released by the radio control device. It then will fly to Washington and circle the city before returning to Elgin Field.

The blast, however, failed to injure Mrs. Bessie Haynes Melchior, who was named as the object of Watt's attention. Another woman suffered a ruptured eardrum.

House Favors Pension Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—House members are showing hearty enthusiasm for the pension plan they voted themselves.

According to records of the House sergeant-at-arms, 159 members of the last House already have subscribed to the retirement plan authorized in the Congressional Reorganization Act of last year.

Among the former members who have done so are Andrew J. May, D., Ky., ex-chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee, and B. Carroll Reece of Tennessee, now chairman of the Republican national committee.

Present members who have applied include Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn of Texas, Rep. Harold Knutson, R., Minn., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Rep. John Taber, R., N. Y., chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Before he can begin to receive payments, a member of Congress must have had at least six years service and must be 62 years old. The amount he gets depends upon the length of his service.

LAKE NAMING GOES ON

PROTEST SEEN
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (UP)—President Truman's renewed effort for a permanent fair employment practices commission expected to draw a storm of protest from Southern Democrats in the House.

An informal survey showed that such a bill were brought to the floor, the 100 Southern members would oppose it.

Southerners said they would not support any permanent FEPC either.

One said he did not believe it had the support of more than 25 members in the entire House.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D., N. Y., has promised to introduce FEPC legislation soon. He said he would attempt to get Republican members behind it.

TO VISIT BRITAIN
MOSCOW, Jan. 9. (UP)—Marshal Alexander M. Vassilevsky, chief of staff for the Soviet combined forces, will visit Britain this year at the invitation of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, whose Russian tour continued today with a trip to the Frunze Military Academy.

Montgomery was highly pleased with his reception in Moscow and said he was having frank discussions with Soviet marshals on war tactics, tank operations and troop training.

Vassilevsky will visit England during the spring or summer. He accepted Montgomery's invitation after consultation with the Soviet government. Montgomery told a press conference he suggested the approximate time when English weather was best.

By 1970 the population will have increased another 400,000 to 8,545,000, and will level off thereafter, a survey the Consolidated Edison Company predicted.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Looking at Life

Erich Brandeis'

If there is one business in which I could never make living it is that of running a restaurant.

Unfortunately, I have to eat my lunch in restaurants almost every day and my work keeps me in town often enough so that I have to eat my dinner out, too.

During my many years of eating out I have talked to lots of waiters and headwaiters and restaurant owners, and what they tell me about "patrons," as they call them, convinces me that if I worked in one of those places I'd be arrested for mayhem the very first day.

And yet, would you believe it most of the restaurant people love their work. "A study in human nature," they call it—and there is also a lot of money in the business, apparently more than in writing.

Today I had lunch all by myself in the Nourse Room of the Waldorf-Astoria and had a long chat with Laurence Torel, my favorite captain.

"I love this business," he said to me and pulled a big stack of Christmas cards out of his pocket (I think he will keep them there all year.)

There was one from Jim Farley and another from the Duke of Windsor and dozens more from some of the best known people in the world. Even Molotov hadn't forgotten him.

"This is how it is," Laurence told me in his slightly broken English: "a person's stomach is one of his most important possessions and catering to a patron's stomach is a most important job."

"Don't you think that the United Nations delegates can do much better work after they have had a good meal? So haven't we people who prepare and serve their meals for them a big share in promoting peace and good will?"

The biggest people, Laurence told me, are the nicest people to wait on. It's only small fry and fourishers who come in to a place and want everything under the sun. "And usually the more they order the smaller the tip."

"How about women?" I asked him. Laurence hesitated a minute and then tried to change the subject.

"How about women," I repeated. "Are they nice to wait on?"

"Well," he said, "as a whole men are better. Men know what they want, but women take an awfully long time to make up their minds, and then, very often they want to exchange what they ordered for something else."

"It's particularly the desserts about which women are very fussy. Now take men. Give them a good piece of apple pie or a chocolate éclair and they are satisfied. But for women you have to have fifty desserts on the menu—and they usually wind up with ice cream."

Well, Laurence loves his business and all his "patrons." But as far as I am concerned I wouldn't be in it for a million.

HOUSE-TO-LET AD BRINGS RIOTOUS RESPONSE

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP)—The first "for rent" advertisement carried in the Berkshire Eagle in two years resulted in a near riot in front of the home of Mrs. Benedetto Cimini, the advertiser.

A line of cars formed that completely blocked traffic. Apartment seekers pushed and shoved their way to the Cimini front door. More than 200 telephone calls were received the first day. When it was announced that the apartment had been rented, several broke down and cried.

HAWK-PHEASANT BRAWL PUTS MEAT ON TABLE

LAKIN, Kan. (UP)—Mrs. Margaret Hurst might not be a fight fan but she came out the winner when she turned a spat between two hawks and a pheasant into a free-for-all.

The farm wife spotted two Hawks wrangled with a cock pheasant in the Hurst field. She got into the fight, beat off the hawks and chased the harried pheasant into a haystack.

Result: Pheasant for the family.

RAILROADERS GROW FOOD

CHICAGO (UP)—Approximately 35,000 employees of the Chicago and North Western Railroad living in nine states produced 16,000,000 pounds of food valued at $1,124,760 in victory gardens in 1946, the railroad reported.

More than 1,200 gardens, averaging half an acre each, were cultivated along the road's right-of-way.

LOTS OF TRANSPORTATION

NEW YORK (UP)—Travel on local transit systems in the United States during 1946 amounted to trips to the sun, according to the more than 3,300,000,000 miles, the equivalent of nearly 18 round American Trans-It Association statistics. Some 23,500,000,000 passengers used subways, elevated trains, busses and trolley cars during the year.

VETS TO PRACTICE

Members of the VFW 1550 net team will practice this evening at 6:30 at the High School gym.

Men who served on juries in Cape Cod communities two centuries ago were prohibited from chewing tobacco.

Dorothy Canfield Fisher, novelist, is leading a national appeal for amnesty for 6,000 conscientious objectors who served prison terms in World War II. Only a presidential amnesty will restore civil rights to the men.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, Leslie Hamaker, who passed away 1 year ago today, Jan. 9th, 1946.

I did not know that hearts could ache

With such a bitter pain:

With longing for a vanished face

To hear a voice again.

I never knew that night could be

So lonely, cold and dim

And for me Dear this world

Will never be the same.

But I know some day on that farflung shore

We'll meet again, just as before.

You'll smile the same old pleasant way;

We'll talk of our dreams of yesterday.

Of a time long past when just we two

Created a world we alone knew;

Through sorrow and pain you smiled your way.

Your smile brought the sun with it each day.

I wouldn't change an hour in the life we knew.

If we could live it back—just we two;

So when we meet on that farflung shore,

We'll live it anew, we two, forever more!

Smooth Shelby Quintet Takes Measure Of Tiger Cubs, 59-40, Wednesday Eve

Coach Frank Barnes, an old Roachdale boy, returned to Greencastle and Putnam county Wednesday night bringing with him the best high school net team we've seen in action this season. His Shelbyville drapery agitators handed the Tiger Cubs a decisive 59 to 40 setback in a local gym before a packed house.

In Bill Garrett, No. 16, ebony-skinned center, Coach Barnes has one of the smoothest performers and best shots to appear on the Greencastle hardwood court in many a day. The speedy and well-balanced visiting quintet jumped into a 15 to 6 edge at the end of the first quarter. However, Coach Kera McClothlin's proteges made a battle out of the proceedings in the second period, outscoring Shelbyville, 13 to 9, but the half ended with the Cubs on the short end of a 24 to 19 count.

It continued to be a ball game during the third frame which found the visitors still in the lead, 38 to 30. The Barnes-coached aggregation rallied in the final quarter, collecting 21 points to 10 by the Cubs and trotted off the floor with a 59 to 40 victory as well as another win to their credit in the South Central Conference.

Garrett was the big noise in the Shelbyville offensive, ringing the bell for a total of 24 points during the hostilities.

The Cubs fought hard but were handicapped by four quick personal on Art Roberts, Jimmy Hammond left the game in the second half via the foul route as did Breck and Murray of Shelbyville.

Rowland, who replaced Roberts in the local lineup, turned in a pretty good game, chalking up 9 points.

Joe Manhart with 12 points was high man for the locals. Hammond got 9 points before he left the contest.

CUBS B TEAM DEFEATED

The Cubs reserves were defeated in "hotly" contested game by the score of 18 to 17 by the Shelbyville B team. The game got a little rough in the final quarter. The Cubs played a good game of ball, one of the best they have played this season but were unable to score enough points on the Greencastle side of the ledger to win.

CUB FRESHMEN TO LAFAYETTE TOURNEY

Gambling Hinted In H. S. Contests

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9 (INS)—The storm warning is up.

A mild tempest has struck Indiana high school basketball and could possibly envelope into a hurricane.

It all started during the Shelbyville-Terre Haute Garfield basketball game at Shelbyville last night. Referee Earl Townsend required the assistance of city police to help him leave the floor as hometown fans became irate over decisions made by the official.

Several versions of the incident have been told. The blame for the uprising has been placed on several shoulders, but the majority of opinion places the fault on a ball fans. According to the Shelbyville Democrat it was the adults who swarmed about the official as police formed a cordon around him to prevent the development of a riot.

Another informant claims that some of the so-called rabid fans responsible for the near free-for-all were gamblers who had wagered on the outcome of the game—adults who were betting on the performances of high school students in a good-will, character building contest.

This is not the first instance of alleged gambling on high school athletic competition. Reported reports have circulated throughout the state that parlay tickets on high school basketball are finding their way into the hands of school children.

Several men who are hired to officiate games are claiming that it is becoming more and more difficult to handle high school contests because of the attitude of fans—mostly adult spectators. One Indianapolis official charged that recently the father of a player on a team, not in Indianapolis, used abusive language to the local coach because he sent in substitutes freely after gaining a comfortable margin on the opponent and had not run up an adding machine score. He claimed he lost money by giving points to the opposing team in a bet.

Thus no official complaint on the Shelbyville incident has been received by the Indiana High School Athletic Association.

Robert Hinshaw, assistant IHSSA commissioner, said no action by the association was contemplated unless a complaint was made by the officials of the game. He added:

"Some action by the IHSSA may be necessary if other outbreaks like that at Shelbyville are reported."

Hinshaw intimated that such incidents might necessitate the barring of adults at all High School athletic events.

Found Guilty Of Grid Bribe

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—(UP)—Alvin J. Paris, 28, Broadway play and gambler, will be sentenced Jan. 28 for attempting to bribe two members of the New York Giants professional football team to throw a championship game with the Chicago Bears.

A jury of 10 men and two women found Paris guilty on two counts after 65 minutes deliberation yesterday and Judge Saul S. Streit indicted he might sentence the defendant to the maximum of 10 years and a $10,000 fine unless he tells all he knows of the attempted fix.

"My advice to you Paris," Streit told the defendant who stood before him pale and shaken, "is to cooperate with the District Attorney and the people of this state if you expect any consideration from this court."

Paris was held in the Tombs prison pending sentence.

Merle Hapes and Frank Filcheck, the two Giant backfield stars Paris attempted to bribe were suspended from the game pending a final ruling within 10 days by President Bert Bell of the National Football League.

Bell said he would study all records of the case before reaching his decision.

Both players appeared before him yesterday to tell their side of the story, and after their testimony both left for their homes.

DERRY, N. H. (UP)—Sometimes it pays not to argue, says Alden Whitney. He and two other hunters shot at one deer—a 130-pound doe—and rather than argue about ownership, Whitney gave it to them and went on hunting. A little later he shot another deer almost twice as big which was his alone.

FIREMEN STRETCH IT OUT

BUTLER, Pa. (UP)—Firemen from six towns had to couple 4,000 feet of hose to fight a fire that swept the three-story Cole Hotel at Wexford. The Valencia

JIM McDONOUGH, one of the worst of the unpunished punsters this side of Punksawney, Pa., dropped into the office today to tell us of some of the "jobs" he recently didn't have.

"I started out in life," quoth James, "as a tailor in a bowling alley. They wanted me to take care of the pins."

"Then," he added, "I went to work in a saloon, as a balf. You see, it was up to me to bring people to the bar."

Ducking a well-aimed paperweight, J. M. continued: "After that I worked during a Christmas season as an upholsterer in a hotel restaurant. My duties? I had to stuff the turkeys."

"Later," Mac insisted, "I worked for a spell in a night club. There I had no difficulty in raising cane."

"From there" (these are direct quotes from Jim) "I worked as a barber in a gambling joint. Boy, did I trim the customers!"

As he sped out of the office to escape manslaughter or worse, McDonough shouted over his shoulder: "I'm on my way, kid, to take a job as dynamiter in a filling station. They need someone to blow up the tires!"
